The committee discussed the monitoring of organisations within FPP and the role of joint working agreements. Mark Meechan advised that joint working agreements were developed through negotiation with funded organisations and provided an understanding of actions which would be taken along with outcomes which should be achieved. In response to a question on the structure of monitoring, Mark Meechan advised that there were monitoring officers who were responsible to their normal line managers and directorate. He stated that monitoring was also achieved through the presentation of reports to the committee and auditors, while voluntary organisations of a charity nature also submitted their accounts to the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator (OSCR). Fiona Campbell advised that all monitoring officers were provided with a risk assessment framework which informed the risk rating which is then presented in the reports to committee. Further, a number of parents from the playgroup had enrolled their older children in other classes.

Members asked about the accreditation available through courses at the project. Mark Meechan stated that there was an SQA qualification available for IT but that it required completion of ten, one hour units which was not what the learners wanted as it was too much of a time commitment.
