- 2.4 All driver/ operators with outstanding issues were written to and requested to present the vehicle with missing equipment/ documentation at the Licensing section. All have now fully complied.

3. CIVIC LICENSING ENFORCEMENT CHECKS

3.1 During April 2013, the Licensing Enforcement Officer undertook 23 civic licensing compliance checks/enquiries.

3.2 The compliance checks/enquiries involved the following civic activities:-

- Houses in Multiple Occupation (HMO's) – three enquiries carried out.
- Street Trader – two checks carried out.
- Second Hand Dealers – nine checks carried out.
- Late Hours Catering – four checks carried out.
- Skin Piercing – three checks carried out.
- Market Operator – one enquiry carried out.
- Metal Dealer – one check carried out.

3.3 These checks consist of a range of items including the following:-

- Licence type
- Licence holder details
- Day to day manager details (if applicable)
- Id badge/ Licence
- Register check (if applicable)
- Vehicle details (if applicable)
- Occupants details

3.4 All of these checks were in order with the exception of the following matters:-

- Unlicensed late hours catering premises at Main Street, Bainsford. The owner of the business did not renew the late hours catering licence. The premises were subsequently visited to and it was established that the owner had forgotten to renew his licence. The owner was given appropriate advice and thereafter written to confirming that the premises should close at 11pm until such times as a late hours catering licence has been granted. A new application has since been received.
- A busker performing in the High Street, Falkirk was found to be selling CD's of his music. He was advised that such an activity required a street trader licence and to cease trading. A letter and application form was subsequently posted out to him.

3.5 In addition to the above, the Licensing Enforcement Officer carried out 3 taxi Knowledge tests involving 11 candidates. 14 site notice checks were also carried out.

4. CIVIC LICENSING COMPLAINTS

4.1 No complaints were received during April 2013.

4.2 One complaint carried over from March 2013, was dealt with as follows:-

- A female motorist complained about a taxi driver allegedly pulling away into the path of her vehicle causing her to stop abruptly. The taxi driver allegedly left his taxi and was verbally abusive to the complainer. The taxi driver was interviewed and claimed that he had stopped and left his taxi when the complainer had allegedly sounded her horn in a continuous manner. He was quite adamant that he had not been verbally abusive to the complainer. A warning letter reminding the taxi driver to conduct himself in a civil and proper manner at all times was issued and his file updated. A letter advising of the course of action undertaken was sent to the complainer.
