both	all	Samaritans of Falkirk and Central Scotland	Our volunteers provide emotional support to people in distress on the phone, face to face, by email and by letter. We believe that being listened to in confidence, without fear of being judged, can be a huge relief and is often the first step in finding a way to cope. Our volunteers don't offer advice, because what works for one person might not work for you. But we do believe that given the time and space to work through problems or difficulties in confidence, everyone can find an inner strength that lets them find their own way forward.	19 Orchard Street, Falkirk FK1 1RF United Kingdom Telephone: 01324 622066

Both	0-18	Children 1st - Family Group Conference	(0-18 year old) Family group conferencing draws on the strengths of the wider family and friends in deciding how best to care for a child. The process brings together parents, aunts, uncles, grandparents, and other concerned family members to decide on and take responsibility for a family plan for the care and protection of the child or young person. While the family plan has to be agreed by childcare professionals, the decision-making lies with the family.	Telephone: 01324 621811 Email: falkirk@children1st.org.uk
