

The Hippodrome

Project Funders

The Hippodrome re-development formed a central part of the Townscape Heritage Initiative to restore significant building within the attractive historical town centre of Bo'ness. The Hippodrome is owned by the Scottish Historic Buildings Trust, who undertook the first phase of the restoration work, and is leased to Falkirk Council, who have overseen the second phase of work.

Phase 1 Funders:

The Heritage Lottery Fund
Falkirk Council
Historic Scotland
BP
Scottish Enterprise
The Architectural Heritage Fund
Falkirk Environment Trust
The Manifold Trust

Phase 2 Funders:

The National Lottery through The Scottish Arts Council
Falkirk Council