WHAT IS CLUBGOLF?

Clubgolf is a programme of golf classes devised by major golfing governing bodies (PGA, Scottish Golf Union, Scottish Ladies Golfing Association, and the Golf Foundation). It's funded by the Scottish Executive through sportscotland. Clubgolf is delivered by coaches/volunteers at local golf clubs and also by Sports Development coaches. Sports Development follow the clubgolf syllabus of classes.

- FIRSTCLUBGOLF
Introductory golf sessions using specific firstclubgolf equipment.
- LEVEL 1 CLUBGOLF – (previously known as Stage 1 Year 1 Module 1 clubgolf)
The ideal course for children aged 8-14 years to develop basic golf skills learnt during firstclubgolf. Participants use supplied junior golf clubs (or can bring their own) with classes taking place outdoors.
- LEVEL 2 CLUBGOLF – (previously known as Stage 1 Year 1 Module 2 clubgolf)
Builds on the skills learnt during Level 1. Participants must have completed Level 1 before progressing to Level 2.
- LEVEL 3 CLUBGOLF – (previously known as Stage 1 Year 2 Module 1 clubgolf)
Takes golf tuition to a higher level: idea for those keen to explore golfing skills in more detail and refine their game.
- LEVEL 4 CLUBGOLF – (previously known as Stage 1 Year 2 Module 2 clubgolf)
The ideal progression for children aged 8-14 years wanting to build upon the skills learnt in the Stage 3 course.

All sessions take place at Callendar Park Par 3 golf course and all golfing equipment is provided. Please contact 01324 503732 or sports.development@falkirk.gov.uk for further details.
