PRIVACY NOTICE

What we need

Falkirk Council and Food Standards Scotland (FSS) are Joint Data Controllers of the personal information you provide to us on this form. The information we collect about you includes name, postal address, email address and telephone number.

Why we need it

- As Joint Data Controllers, we need to collect this information for the purposes of Food Law Enforcement.
- Regulation (EC) No 882/2004 on Official Controls performed to ensure the verification of compliance with Food Law, requires that Falkirk Council and FSS coordinate effectively in the field of Environmental and Health protection, carrying out their activities with a high level of transparency, making relevant information available to the public as soon as possible.
- Each Local Authority is required to maintain an up to date list of registered Food Business Establishments in its area and divulge this information for the purposes of ensuring public health and the effective enforcement of Food Law.
- The Food (Scotland) Act 2015, enables FSS to set performance standards, report on enforcement action by others and require relevant information from Falkirk Council.
- The Official Feed and Food Controls (Scotland) Regulations 2009, allows the exchange and provision of information by FSS and Falkirk Council for the execution and enforcement of relevant Food Law, and makes provision for Falkirk Council to provide FSS with Food Business information.
- Falkirk Council and FSS are required to fulfil the statutory obligations required by Article 44 of Regulation (EC) No 882/2004, which places a requirement on Local Authorities and FSS to provide the information specified in that Article and to report to the European Commission.
- FSS maintains a national database that can be accessed by both Food Standards Scotland and the Local Authority to which the information pertains. The reporting toolset allows information to be strategically analysed, allowing both organisations to adhere to the principles of the Scottish Regulators' Strategic Code of Practice.
- We will only collect the data that we need as required by the above regulations and legislation, and not collect any personal information from you that we do not need.

What we do with it

The information on this form will be retained by Falkirk Council for the duration of your business registration. Additionally if your business closes, or your registration details are otherwise amended then this information will continue to be retained for a maximum of six years following notification of the closure or the amendment of your registration details.

The information collected on your business relating to Food Law enforcement activity will be retained by Falkirk Council for a maximum of six years for Freedom of Information purposes. Food Standards Scotland collects food business information from Falkirk Council on a regular basis for the purposes of Food Law Enforcement. The same information will be retained by FSS for a maximum of 6 years, also for Freedom of Information purposes and the monitoring of enforcement action by Local Authorities.

FSS have put in place appropriate and adequate technical and organisational measures to protect your personal information. FSS data is located within the European Union, on cloud based services procured through the government framework agreements, and assessed against the national cyber security centre cloud security principles.

Falkirk Council have put in place appropriate and adequate technical and organisational measures to protect your personal information. Falkirk Council data is located on a secure local network, accessed only by Falkirk Council.

We want to assure you that no third parties have access to your personal information unless the Law allows them to do so.

What we may also be required to do with it

The information may be shared with other Regulators in line with the principles of the Scottish Regulators Strategic Code of Practice for compliance and risk mitigation purposes. This is limited to circumstances where the law allows such sharing of information by regulators with common interests or activities.

What are your rights?

You have a right to see the information we hold on you by making a request in writing to the email addresses below. If at any point you believe the information we process on you is incorrect you can request to have it corrected. If you wish to raise a complaint on how we have handled your information, you can contact our Data Protection Officers who will investigate the matter. If you are not satisfied with our response or believe we are not processing your information in accordance with the law you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).

If you need any further information please contact Falkirk Council's Data Protection Officer at data.protection@falkirk.gov.uk or Food Standards Scotland's Data Protection Officer at: dataprotection@fss.scot.
