

The background of the slide features a large, light blue watermark of the City of Vancouver's coat of arms. The crest is a shield divided into four quadrants. The top-left quadrant shows a sailing ship on the water. The top-right quadrant shows a stag's head with antlers. The bottom-left quadrant shows a beaver. The bottom-right quadrant shows a grizzly bear. Above the shield is a crown with four maple leaves. A banner at the bottom of the shield contains the motto "A NE FOR A".

594	15/03/2022	Future Development Planning System	That officers assess the resource implications of all the changes to the development planning system and report back to the Executive on these implications.	Director of Place Services	01 January 2023	In Progress	Finalisation of NPF4, regulations and statutory guidance is still awaited from the Scottish Government. Once officers have this and have had the opportunity to consider in detail, a report will be brought forward that includes consideration of the wider resourcing implications across the planning authority. Expected reporting date January 2023. In response to the Council's challenging budget situation officers are undertaking a review of the Development Management and Planning Services. This activity will take account of all existing work as well as anticipated future challenges – including NPF4 - and ensure resources and capacity is prioritised appropriately and efficiently. As a result a report on potential additional resources for the planning authority to Executive is no longer required.
