VJB13. PRESENTATION ON THE ASSESSOR'S FUNCTIONS

The Assessor gave a presentation on the role of the Assessor's office and its functions.

The presentation covered the following areas:-

Specific Duties

- Valuation for Non Domestic Ratings
 - all properties unless excepted by law
 - 5 yearly revaluation
- Valuation and Banding for Council Tax (all domestic properties)
- Registration of Eligible Electors (resident; over 18; UK, EU, Commonwealth nationals)

Core Activities

- Valuation Roll (survey and value new properties, survey and value changes to existing properties)
- Council Tax List (survey and band new houses; survey and re-banding after improvement and sale)
- Electoral Register (annual canvass and rolling register; absent voter's list)

Statutory Posts

- Each function is a statutory duty on the Assessor personally (not the Board)
- The Assessor is appointed by the Valuation Joint Board to carry out the Valuation functions
- Depute Assessors are also appointed by the Board and have the same statutory rights and duties
- Assessor and Depute Assessor must by law be Chartered Surveyors
- The Assessor is appointed by the 3 Councils to carry out the Electoral Registration Function

Answerable to?

- The Assessor is answerable to the Valuation Joint Board for the running of the Service, but not for the valuations or whether a registration is correct or not
- The Assessor is answerable to the Scottish Courts for the valuations and registrations

The Valuation Joint Board's responsibilities

- To ensure that the Assessor and Electoral Registration Office is adequately funded to carry out the statutory duties
- To scrutinise that the Assessor is using those funds properly and fully carrying out the duties
- To provide governance and leadership in terms of the Best Value regime
- To be the final decision making body in staff discipline or staff grievance/complaint

Scottish Assessors Association

- An association of all 14 Scottish Assessors and members of their senior staff
- The SAA is non-statutory but is recognised by both Scottish and UK governments as an important source of advice
- The SAA performs several important functions including the harmonisation of valuation practice throughout Scotland
- Coordination of Electoral Registration practice and point of contact with Government and Electoral Commission
- Allows sharing of resources and expertise between Assessors' offices
- Allows Assessors to combine to deal with national organisations in a consistent way (UK Information Commissioner, Scottish Information Commissioner, Electoral Commission, Credit Reference Agencies, Ministry of Justice/Scotland Office, Scottish Government, Valuation Office Agency, Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors, Institute of Revenues Rating and Valuation, Boundary Commissions, Political Parties, ONS)
- SAA Portal – an example of joint working and resource sharing
 - allows direct access to many Assessors' services via the internet
 - 75% of all Council tax appeals are now made on-line
 - also allows on-line non domestic appeals
 - allows on line return of rental information
 - provides rateable value history for any property
 - provides nationally agreed practice notes explaining how Assessors have valued each type of property
